MURDERER CALLED IMPOSTOR

SOCIETY LEADERS
IN DIVORCE COURT

SPERRY'S IN DOMESTIC TRAGEDY

Mrs. K. M. Sperry Is Granted Divorce From Flour Company Head.

Suit Secretly Begun On June 26; Wife Tells of Wretchedness.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15.—As forecasted by the tea cups during gossiping afternoons by the smart set, Mrs. Katherine Mitchell Sperry and her husband, Harris B. Sperry, of the Sperry Flour Company, have been in the midst of a domestic tragedy for a year past and a secret divorce suit was begun on June 26th. Not until today when Superior Judge E. P. Mogan affixed his signature to a divorce decree did the details of the charges preferred by the beautiful wife, who was a belle in Alameda county's social circles before her marriage, come to light.

All of the property settlements were made out of court and Mrs. Sperry received her freedom and it is understood a goodly portion of her husband's lands and houses. All of the testimony in the case was heard by Joseph Goetzard, a commissioner with offices in the Foxcroft Building. The testimony was taken on September 3 and the story of Mrs. Sperry was corroborated by her sister Miss Marie Mitchell, of 1517 Harrison street, Oakland.

Captain Richard was shooting in the Meany match at the International and Interstate tournament. After he made a perfect score of 10 he kept on shooting, according to the rules of the match.

To Know Fate Wednesday

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15.—Passing of judgment on F. Drew Carmichael and Manly I. Dicks was continued this morning until Wednesday, but Judge Van Fleet leaves on a vacation Thursday and there can be no further postponement of the sentences. By consent today Prosecutor Theodore Roche and Attorney Robert Devlin agreed that the sentencing of the two men should await the decision tomorrow of the jury which is trying Dicks and Attorney Charles B. Harris, of Sacramento, for conspiracy to suborn perjury. It is the intention of counsel for the defense to make motions for new trials and in arrest of judgment in behalf of both accused men. It is believed, however, that these will be denied by the court and it will then devolve upon the attorneys to perfect their appeals which they assert they will take to the highest courts of the land.

Jealous After Jilting, Swain Attempts Double Tragedy

Fires at Woman and Aims at Own Heart; Ambulance Mishap.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15.—In the midst of a Mexican fandango, in which a thousand persons were participating, and double that number looking on and applauding, and while the ballroom floor was a mass of color and animation, Joaquin Rios, his blood inflamed with jealousy, sped across the Dreamland Rink early this morning, gazing at this couple and that, until he came upon his sweetheart, Frances Garcia, also known as Frances Garzonas, of 565 Hayes street. Then before the startled eyes of the revelers, and while the band still played a thrilling Spanish air, he drew a pistol from his pocket, fired a shot at the woman, and, turning the weapon upon himself, fired at his heart. Instantly the floor was in an uproar. The special police had to fight their way through the throng. An ambulance was summoned and both lifted in. Driver James Tobin was told to rush to the hospital. He obeyed his instructions. At Ellis and Fillmore streets, swerving to avoid a pedestrian, he struck Jacob Diegenes of 416 Thirtieth street, inflicting painful injuries.

ALL MAY RECOVER.

Later in the morning an examination by Chief Surgeon Alanson Weeks revealed that Diegenes would certainly recover, and that both Miss Garcia and Rios had a fighting chance to get well.

INFLAMED BY JEALOUSY.

Rios was actuated by jealousy and anger, because the young woman had jilted his affections. "You don't marry me, as you promised, I will kill you," he threatened, as he finally found the young woman amidst the crowd. He had searched every face on one side of the pavilion before he found her, and then without hesitation fired the shot and made the attempt at suicide.

Lane May Take
Trip to Honolulu

BERKELEY, Sept. 15.—Secretary of the Interior Franklin K. Lane, who collapsed while reviewing the Admission day parade in this city, although continuing to gain strength, is still very weak at the home of his brother here, and it is probable that he will make a voyage to Honolulu in the very near future in order to recuperate. Attending physicians have advised the secretary to take a fortnight's vacation, declaring that it will probably permit him to resume his duties without a rest. Several other plans are under consideration, but Lane today stated that the island trip was the most attractive.

Was Acquitted of Another Offense On Account of Mind.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—Confident of branding as an impostor and pseudo priest the Rev. Hans Schmidt, the alleged confessed slayer of Anna Aumuller, victim of New York's river murder mystery, church authorities began today a sweeping investigation of Schmidt's record and his pretensions to ordination.

"We hope to be able to prove that this unspeakable monster was an impostor and that he had been using forged papers," declared Monsignor Lavelle, Vicar General of the Archdiocese of New York.

LONG UNDER SUSPENSION.

A cable dispatch received here from Mainz, Germany, today is as follows:

"The Journal today says that Johannes Schmidt, belonging to the Mainz Bishopric, has been long under suspension by the Bishop. He disappeared from Mainz and later arrived in Munich, where he was arrested on a charge of committing a number of frauds, according to the newspapers. After he had been acquitted by the court on the ground of weak-mindedness, he emigrated to New York. The Mainz Bishopric was not aware that he was exercising the functions of a priest in New York."

SLEEPS SOUNDLY.

In his cell in the Tombs, with his coat as a pillow, Schmidt slept soundly, and arose this morning to partake of a hearty breakfast. He had little to add to his alleged confession of last night, in which he said he had told the police that he killed his victim as she lay in bed, cut up her body in the bath tub of the apartment where he had established her, wrapped it in five bundles and dropped the bundles into the Hudson river.

The Rev. L. J. Evers, the Tombs chaplain, Schmidt was said to have made the following declaration: "I was directed to kill her by St. Elizabeth, who is my patron, as a sacrifice, to be consumed as was the sacrifice of Abraham, in blood."

The "moral squad" which promises to establish new records for police work, will not make arrests or do ordinary police duty, but will give its entire time to investigating conditions touching moral conditions in the city. The members of the force will be for the most part plain clothes operatives, and a careful scrutiny of all cafes, gambling joints, and social clubs will be made. Reports will be made to the Chief of Police or to Commissioner Turner concerning the activities of the "moral squad," and these reports will be the basis of arrests and prosecutions for violation of laws for the protection of the morals of society, of women and children. The "moral squad" will be officially known as the "moral squad," and will be appointed in the near future. It is understood that the "moral squad" will give a large part of its time to the detection of clandestine prostitution, immediately following the abolition of the segregated district.

CARIZZO SPRINGS, Tex., Sept. 15.—
Evidence that some of the fourteen ammunition smugglers under arrest here after a fight with United States troops Saturday were connected with the industrial Workers of the World, was unearthed today. From the body of Pan-filo Vasquez, a slain smuggler, were taken papers indicating his membership in the I. W. W. He also bore "pronouncements" from the Los Angeles branch of the Mexican revolutionists. A red flag, captured with the band, bears the inscription, "Tierra y Libertad," literally meaning "land of freedom." Fourteen were indicted today in the county court here, charged with murder for killing Candelario Ortiz. Trial was set for Thursday.

Barney Cline, the American arrested with the thirteen Mexicans, has offered to turn state's evidence. Cline claims there is an underground railway for what he calls "gun running," from San Antonio through Knappa and Carizzo Springs, Tex., to the Mexican border.
Federal officers began investigations of his revelations which implicates several Americans. Two Mexicans here are in jail charged with smuggling.

BOLD HIGHWAYMAN

Wrenches Purse From Victim's Hand and Flees.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15.—Struggling in the grasp of a daring highwayman, who attacked her at the corner of Scott street and Broadway, early this morning, Miss Kathryn Wheatley, a servant in the home of Dr. George K. Frink, 2026 Vallejo street, succeeded in escaping, but not until the footpad had wrenched her hand-satchel from her grasp. There was no electric light on the corner, according to Miss Wheatley and she saw nothing of the robber until he seized her from behind.

"I want your purse and I want you to keep your mouth shut," he warned. The young woman clung tightly to her bag and the same time tried to loudly for aid. The highwayman threw her down, twisted her arm until he obtained the purse and then ran down Scott street toward Broadway.

The purse contained $3 in coin and some trinkets.

Baker, Threatened by Poverty, Is Suicide

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15.—Overcome by loneliness and threatened with the suffering that poverty brings, Gustave Baker, 32 years old, committed suicide this morning in his room at 1877 O'Farrell. He was found by J. J. Wendell, a friend, of 1839 O'Farrell street, who broke into his home. Last had evidently stood over the gas stove, both burners of which he had turned on, and had inhaled the deadly fumes until he fell back unconscious to the floor. He had been out of work for some time.

W. Black, well known in political circles, committed suicide early today, supposedly because he failed to obtain the appointment of postmaster here. His body was found in Lybany Park, and in the absence of any known motive for the ac-had become dependent when another man won the place in the public service which he had earnestly sought.

JAPANESE BLAMES WIFE FOR DEATH OF ADMIRER

Victim Makes Dying Statement Charging Woman's Husband With Shooting.

Sikaye Abe and Wife Both Held in Detinue Pending Further Investigation.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15.—Blaming his wife for slaying a man who had been paying her attention, and who in turn charged him with the murder, Sikaye Abe, a Japanese, was this morning, and placed in detinue, pending a further investigation by detectives into the death of Kelsaka Uchida, as a result of a duel at 1930 Bush street, at midnight.

It is claimed that Abe had warned Uchida to keep away from the house. Returning after a night out, he found the couple together. Both men drew revolvers. Uchida said that Abe shot him twice, and that his one bullet went wild. He died early this morning at the Central Emergency hospital, but not until he had made a dying statement charging Abe. Patrolman Bortfield, the first officer to reach the scene, talked to Abe who told him that he had come home, had found Uchida on the floor, and that his wife had told him she had shot the injured man. At a word from Abe the woman went and brought a revolver to him from which five shots had been fired. Beside Uchida's prostrate form was another gun from which one bullet had been discharged.

"Abe shot me," said Uchida in his dying statement to the bond and warrant clerk. The police are holding Mrs. Abe also.

CHINESE ESCAPE IN RACE WITH OFFICERS

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 15.—Six Chinese sailors from the British steamer K. K. were freed from the craft, while two other members of the crew were captured at the point of revolvers by the harbor police. One or more white men aided in the escape, using a small eighteen-foot launch to take the men ashore.

Harbor Patrolman Webster and Engineer Carl Probin were passing the steamer in the harbor boat when they saw the small launch in the shadow of the steamer. A hot pursuit followed and the smuggler's launch was captured after it had been beached. Its navigator escaped.

I was unable to do anything and my weight dropped from 145 pounds to 125 pounds. I suffered for about two months when I was advised to use Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I used two bottles of it and it gave me permanent relief," writes R. W. Hill of Snow Hill, N. C. For sale by Osgood Bros. Drug Stores.

ORPHEUM

A situation similar to the big scene in "La Tosca," but with a different setting and slightly different ending, forms the "Countess Nadine," which is being offered this week at the Orpheum theater. The sketch is gripping in interest, and until the very end the audience is left in suspense.

Harold West and Theodore Babcock are the two principal actors in the little sketch, one being cast as the countess' lover, captured by the Russian soldiers, and the other as the Russian general, who gains with the countess a sleeping position and written order of release, gained from the general, finally ends the complication.

Flanagan and Edwards present a frothy bit of comedy in one scene and two changes of drop curtain. It is a laugh throughout and shows actors on both of the stage. The twelve minutes of present a dancing act of more than ordinary merit, their "mirror dance" being truly wonderful.

Edith Kirk and Billy Fogarty present a line of jokes and stories which places Redford and Winchester, with their comedy juggling, Wallow and Duffy, skaters, the T. J. Miller, and motion pictures of Harry K. Thaw, shown exclusively at the Orpheum, round out the bill.

PANTAGES

"Sorority Days," a catchy musical novelty, is a gripping bit of "abroad drama, one of the headliners at this week's Pantages bill. The former is for laughing purposes only. The latter is a melodrama, but sugar-coated, wherefore it entertains.

The tabloid drama is based on Bryant's "The Man Who Sings," in which William Shilling is the principal figure. The climax shows a remarkable bit of scenic work.

This other headliner is a musical act, in which college songs and dances which away about twenty-five minutes. The costumes are in black and white. Several

WILSON LEGISLATION IS WELL ADVANCED

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—With the tariff bill being completed and the administration currency bill under way in the House, the coming week in Congress promises marked progress toward the enacting of the statute books the legislation prescribed by President Wilson.

The Senate and House conferees settling points in the tariff bill in disagreement between the two houses have made much progress.

The House this week will take up the currency bill in detail. With the tariff bill out of the way, the measure now will be taken up for amendment, and, although the approval of the Democratic caucus is expected to prevent any changes, various attempts will be made to alter some provisions.

The section providing that national banks shall subscribe 20 per cent of their capital and 5 per cent of their deposits to the proposed Federal reserve banks, and the provision making reserve banknotes Government obligations, will be principal points of attack.

The Senate Banking Committee will resume hearing bankers, financial experts and merchants Tuesday, when the first of 17 witnesses will appear.

The House Lobby Committee, after tomorrow, will suspend hearings temporarily and prepare a report. Former Representative Ralph D. Cole of Ohio and C. H. McCall of New York are expected to testify before the inquiry is concluded.

MACDONOUGH

"Ready Money," a thrilling comedy romance, which proved one of the most brilliant dramatic successes of the East for last year, world-wide fame, will open for a third time at the Macdonough theater, where it will be presented by the original New York company. There will be a matinee Wednesday and the famous performance will be given Wednesday evening.

Stars of international reputation have already appeared in the drama, which is considered one of the cleanest and most delightful comedies of the day. It was the sensation of the New Theater in London; eight months at the Maxine Elliott Theater in New York; and four months in the Cort theater at Chicago.

Critics have declared that the performance is one of the most interesting that has yet been seen on the continent. They say that it is a drama that all married or unmarried women should witness.

IDORA PARK

Love of sensation and of excitement drew a vast crowd to Idora park yesterday to see the fearless Greys in their daredevil act, the "Auto that Pass in the Air." Over 25,000 people visited Idora park yesterday, to watch in bewilderment the fearless feat of the aerial autists, and to enjoy the rippling musical comedy presented by the Idora troupe in the big canopied amphitheatre.

A group of structural iron workers, men whose trade leads them daily to dare death on swinging beams and girders hundreds of feet in the air on bridges under construction, will be the attraction of the automobile act staged at the park as a free attraction in the Greys.

Several of the men remained to see that act a second time in the evening, after having witnessed the afternoon performance. So thrilled were they by the reckless death leap and time aerial somersault of the iron hawk that they had created a sensation in the bay region, will be continued every afternoon and evening during the season, unless some accident makes this program impossible. Two minor accidents have already occurred, but neither has been serious enough to mar the performance.

"The Sinner Prince," an operatic extravaganza, will be the bright bill for the current week in the canopied amphitheatre. The story is a quaint pastoral love story, which has been delightfully woven together. The music is by the famous Edmond Andran, composer of "Olivette" and "The Sinner Prince." It has been based in "Mascot." Mindel Kingston will carry the role of Bettin, and H. Guy Woodward will be the Prince of the Forest.

Always will be the Prince of the Forest.

REMOVAL OF BONE RESTORES REASON

Vicious Insane Convict Transformed by Operation Relieving Brain Pressure.

TRENTON, N. J., Sept. 15.—The removal of a growth of bone, one and a half inches thick from the skull where it had been pressing against the brain, transformed James Ezike, an inmate of the New Jersey State prison from an insane and vicious to a normal individual. He was convicted two years ago of killing a Hun in a drunken brawl. Doctors discovered that he was suffering from the results of a fractured skull. He failed in health gradually, became a maniac and unable to care for himself.

An operation was performed and since then he has improved rapidly and is now able to do his own work in the hospital ward.

SANTA FE MAY BUILD LINE INTO VALLEJO

VALLEJO, Sept. 15.—Closely following the announcement that the Santa Fe system will build a branch line from Stockton to Ukiah at Vallejo, the original intention of those seeking financial aid from Oakland was to have this line act as a part of a transportation system that would build up the water front strip of Southern Solano county and feed into Oakland and San Francisco via the ferry from Benicia to Martinez.

FLEMING HILL WATER SUPPLY IS DROPPING

VALLEJO, Sept. 15.—But 390,000 gallons of water now remain in the Fleming Hill reservoir where the supply has dropped from 650,000 gallons since last Saturday. 'CURSES! FOILED!' SAY HOLDUP MEN

Pleasing Mask and Revolver Stunt "Killed" for State Fair Excursion.

A "desperate" holdup was foiled today when the "Stunts Committee" for the Alameda county excursion to the State Fair found that under no circumstances would the Southern Pacific consent to having a hand in any such affair. Wherefore the "stunts committee" is at work thinking up something else to enliven the trip.

Secretary Fred Boegle of the manufacture committee, with members of the stunts committee, had they affair all mapped out. Actors in masks, and armed with empty revolvers, were to have stopped the booster train near Davis, and were to have gone aboard and taken all the cigars and tobacco in the train. All was arranged even the stopping of the train. The Southern Pacific was approached.

Several other attractions are planned. These will not be announced, but will be in the nature of a surprise to the boosters on the train. Frank W. Biker, Leslie F. Rice, Fred Boegle, J. E. Caine, secretary for A. Denison of the Chamber of Commerce, George Mason, and several others are devising the program for the trip.

VISALIA FESTIVAL OPENS TOMORROW

Second Annual Moose Carnival to Continue for One Week.

VISALIA, Sept. 15.—Visalia's fall festival starts tomorrow with the opening of the second annual Moose carnival, which will continue one week. Arrangements have been completed and indications point to this as the most successful yet held. The carnival closes Saturday night with a grand moral play and rousing reception to the queen. The voting for the queen is now in progress, with Miss Fern Kinkler leading over Miss Inna Petersen by a margin of only 150 votes.

Following the Moose festival the committee will start arrangements for the second annual Harvest day festival to be held Thanksgiving day. On this occasion two big automobile races will be staged last year, with a purse of over $3000. Indications point to this being very successful, inquiries coming from all parts of the State relative to entries and rulings.

Another big New Year's eve celebration is already being planned by the Board of Trade and Merchants' association to close the year's celebrations, while at the same time it is recognized that a May day event will be staged as well as another Fourth of July celebration when the time comes.

FINDS EVIDENCE OF A DIVINITY

Proof of God Not Lacking Any-

Father O'Neill.

BERKELEY, Sept. 15.—"The human soul cannot get away from God," said

Rev. Thomas Lantry O'Neill of the Paul-ist congregation, chairman of the Newman

fore the Catholic students of the University of California yesterday morning.

"Let man go where he will," continued

Father O'Neill, "the thoughts of God will follow him. The skies, the mountains

the landscapes, the trees and the flowers, all record His presence. The order that man sees in the universe is proof of the presence of an omnipotent ruler.

From the blade of grass at his feet to the mighty orbits of the planets, man is constantly reminded of the presence of the ruler of all.

In the midst of nature, no ruler, man has run to the desert to escape the thoughts of a God, and even there they have found His presence. Others have locked themselves in, shutting out the companionship and here too their conscience told them of the presence of the Divine Creator.

Continuing, Father O'Neill urged the students to combine spiritual education with academic, to know and love and reverence their Creator and to mould their lives, conscious of His presence.

At this late mass, Father O'Neill announced that on next Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock, John Steven McCroarty, author of the famed California mission play, will deliver a public address in

Newman hall on "The Romance of California." In the course of this address the writer of the play will explain the reasons for the play's success.

that occasion.

One of the chief speakers will be Pro-

Parker has made an exhaustive study of

RICHMOND, Sept. 15.—Brooding

CHILD IS BITTEN BY VICIOUS DOG

Alameda Boy Attacked and Injured: Poundmaster Is Refused the Dog.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 15.—Curtis Greene,

the 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. F.

J. Greene of 1234 Park street, was bitten yesterday afternoon at Grand street and dog, said to be the property of W. C.

Sharpstein of 1545 Benton street. The boy had attempted to pet the dog, which sprung at his throat, but the youngster, stepping back, received the wound in the left arm instead.

Poundmaster Grant Hicks was notified

by neighbors and attempted to capture the animal, which after a long pursuit took refuge in a house at Benton street and could not be secured.

A friend of the owner of the dog, refused to give the animal into the custody of the pound man, that officer declares.

Hicks said he demanded the dog, but met with absolute refusal.

Today Poundmaster Hicks said that he would secure possession of the animal which, under the law, must be held for ten days for investigation. The poundman was adamant that any person should protect the dog which, he says, may be afflicted with rabies.

This is the third case of dog bite within a short time. The council is to pass an ordinance Tuesday evening requiring that all dogs be muzzled or confined for the period of one year.

FESTIVAL WINDS
UP IN CITY JAIL

Arthur Downing Imbibes Too Freely of the Amber Fluid.

Arthur Downing started out on a little celebration last night and after imbibing freely found himself without funds to continue the festival. At Sixteenth and Telegraph he saw Deputy Sheriff J. J. Hannifin sitting peacefully in his automobile.

Downing drew a long and shining "toad" stabber from his pocket and waved it menacingly at Hannifin.

"Come through with a buck," he demanded, entreating the demand with words offensive to the ear of even a deputy sheriff.

Hannifin looked at the knife, and by way of placating the belligerent, offered him fifty cents. Downing went on his way rejoicing, but Hannifin sought Patrolman Frohn and Corporal Fahy. The three followed and found Downing trying to induce a woman to contribute to his celebration fund.

Downing was taken into custody and will be charged with most of the misdemeanors on the calendar including drunkenness, vile language, disturbing the peace, resisting an officer, failing to move on and conduct unbecoming a gentleman.

NEW JERSEY METEOR PARTLY DYNAMITE

TIVERTON, N. J., Sept. 15.—The Tiverton meteor of August 27 was today reported to be the result of a natural phenomenon by two young men, who confessed to the police that the supposed celestial visitor was composed of 60 pounds of dynamite and a quantity of copper slag.

"Which" which was reported to have fallen in the Saconnet river, was accompanied by a blinding light and a deafening crash. Two fishermen later found in their nets a heavy piece of metal, which was declared to be the fallen "meteor." The fishermen put their find on exhibition and the place of the fall was pointed out by a Brown University geologist pronounced the "meteor" to be nothing but copper slag. The young men said that, with some companions, they had taken the dynamite and exploded it behind Gould's Island in order to cause a sensation in the town.

CAPTAIN EXONERATED OF CALIFORNIA WRECK

SEATTLE, Sept. 15.—Captain Thomas H. Cann Jr. was exonerated from blame for the wreck of the Pacific Coast Steamer ship Company's steamer State of California, which was lost in Gable Bay, Alaska, August 17, with a loss of thirty-one lives, in the report of United States Marine Inspector Elton B. Whitney and Robert A. Turner. The report says Captain Cann was "drunk and had every reason to believe the vessel was safe."

The inspectors yesterday suspended for three months the license of Captain William Thompson of the steamship Curacao because of failure to maintain proper discipline, which resulted in the sinking of the ship after she struck an uncharted rock on the west coast of Prince of Wales Island, Alaska, June 21.

PEDESTRIAN PROTECTION.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: May I suggest to you that for the protection of pedestrians the numbers on the automobiles be reduced to three or less plainly visible figures, 12 inches high, and five feet above the ground, with a 15 inch letter of the alphabet 15 inches to the left of the figures. Thus, the letters and figures, say black on white from A1 to Z999 would supply 25,974 autos. White on black, 2,594 more, white on red an additional 2,594; white on blue, 2,594, etc., etc., always illuminated at night.

Yours very respectfully,

T. W. JACKSON.

APPEALS FOR ASSISTANCE.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: Attention is directed to a most pathetic case of utter helplessness on the part of a naturalized American citizen, named Mike Joe, an Italian by birth, who with a marvelous escape from instantaneous death on July 26, last year while in the execution of duty. The unfortunate man, who is 45 years of age, while working as a cement finisher in the West Oakland sub-station of the electric system of suburban lines, accidentally got his left foot in contact with an electric conductor carrying 13,000 volts of electric current. The man was badly burned and was hurled to the railroad hospital in San Francisco, where he remained for three months or more. Since that time the railroad has done nothing at all for him and the man is absolutely incapacitated from work; in fact, he is barely alive, though far more cheerful than many in his position would be.

His wife also in indifferent health and not able to do more than the necessary house work.

He was a member of several fraternal orders and they have helped him a great deal, but assistance from that source is about at an end and his savings are also used up.

The man was, before his injury, a good, quiet and industrious citizen and is deserving of public assistance.

He has brought suit for damages through a well known firm of San Francisco attorneys, but it is a long and tedious case and he needs help now. His address is 222 Fifth street, Oakland, and any interested person is invited to investigate the case fully.

COLUMBIA'S NEW
OPENING SUCCESS

Tenth Street Playhouse Now Under Direction of Bray and Wippen.

With the opening matinee at the Columbia theatre yesterday afternoon a new company, under the direction of Bray and Wippen, gave the first performance of what promises to be a long season at the Tenth street theatre.

The new aggregation has taken the place of the Dillon and King company, which has just closed a two years' run at the playhouse.

Miss Honora Hamilton, leading lady of the new company, has a winning personality and is fast winning a place in the hearts of the Columbia theatre patrons. She takes the role of the widow in the initial play of the company, "The Girl Widow." Besides her excellent stage presence she is the possessor of a good voice.

Low Dunbar and Heinie Auerbach, who are cast as German comedians, do a lot of good comedy work and are well placed in their roles. A clever little ingenue is Kate Carlson in the role of Lucy Lane.

In this part Miss Carlson made a hit and good work is looked forward to in the future from this attractive little play.

George Henry and Paxley Noon both have excellent voices, which they use to advantage. Henry plays the lead with Miss Hamilton in the role of a wife-seeking widower. Noon was seen in the part of a stammering "hall-room boy," which he portrayed in a pleasing manner.

The Rosebud Chorus is well trained and the voices are showing careful training. Some of the best musical numbers are: Opening chorus, the Rosebuds, parodies, Heinie Auerbach, "Specially Loves a Chick," Kate Carlson and Rosebuds, "So Long, Good-bye," Paxley Noon and Rosebuds, quartette, Low Dunbar, Heinie Auerbach, Paxley Noon and George Henry, "Kiss Me," Heinie Auerbach, "Kiss Me," Kate Carlson and Rosebuds, "I Am a Doll," Kate Carlson, finale, entire company.

"Ten fellows nothing," said the feather man, "You mean ten fellows—ten fellows. It wasn't ten fellows that was taken, it was ten pillows."

The mistake was plain. The two fellows were somewhat alike, so the policemen went back to the station.

WAR MAPS FOUND; OWNERS MISSING

Adjutant - General's Office Is Investigating Rumors of Thefts.

VALLEJO, Sept. 15.—The Adjutant General's office, which for some months has semi-officially and secretly investigated the reported existence of arm Japanese military organizations in California, announced that there was no evidence that the State of federal laws had been violated.

Accurate war maps of the California coast were found, but information as to their ownership was withheld.

During the last two years about forty Japanese associations, incorporated as "non-profit" concerns, have been organized in this State. They were reported to the Adjutant General's office, to advance the interests of Japanese.

The Adjutant General's office found that on several occasions these associations had entertained visitors from Japan, who had no credentials.

A recent report from Los Angeles that a Japanese military organization had been organized in the south, with arms available for immediate use, is to be investigated.

TEN PILLOWS STOLEN; POLICE IN WILD CHASE

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 15.—"Yes, ten fellows were stolen away from the loading room of the Kansas City Feather company, 1419 Campbell street, just now. Three roving looking men, driving one horse hitched to a spring wagon, did the work. Hurry some officers out here."

That's what the clerk at the Walnut street police station thought he heard come in jerky, excited sentences over his telephone at noon yesterday. So thinking he ordered several reserves and the detective department out to the scene of action. Out Fifteenth street raced the car full of detectives.

"Now let's get the name of each kidnaped man first," they told the feather company, 1419 Campbell street, just now.

"What are you talking about, man," asked the manager.

"I'm talking about the ten fellows who were kidnaped here awhile ago," he returned.

"Ten fellows nothing," said the feather man. "You mean ten pillows—ten pillows. It wasn't ten fellows that was taken, it was ten pillows."

The mistake was plain. The two fellows were somewhat alike, so the policemen went back to the station.

PREPARE FOR FILLMORE STREET CELEBRATION

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15.—The Fillmore street Improvement Association has appointed a central committee to take charge of the district celebration which will be held on Fillmore street at the time of the Mechanics' Fair, September 26th to October 1st, and announced that they had completed a list of names of persons who concessions will be granted for street shows, refreshment booths and all sorts of amusements. In addition, there will be competitive drills in which various fraternal orders will participate, and a large show will be held in connection with the fair.

Prizes have been donated by the Fillmore street merchants and great activity is being shown in the preparations for the event. There is soon to be an excellent contest for the honor of being Queen of the Carnival and there is keen rivalry manifest among the part of the several probable applicants.

CHARLES F. WEBBER DIES

IDORA ACT ENDS
IN AUTO MISHAP

Somersaulting Car Makes Half-Turn Too Many; Daring Driver Pinioned.

Whirling half a turn too far, the somersaulting car driven by Charles Gregg in the "Amos that Drove in At" at Idora park, turned turtle as it dropped to the landing stage last night, pinioning the daring driver beneath it. The accident occurred when the act was being watched by several thousand spectators, and the machine dropped with a crash, women screamed, and several fainted.

It was thought that young Gregg had been killed. Attendees rushed to the landing stage, and the hero was raised with the utmost difficulty. Gregg had succeeded in crouching down in the seat in such a manner as to save himself from being crushed between the edge of the back of the seat and the landing stage, but the shock of the fall had rendered him unconscious.

Gregg was found stunned and crumpled in the seat. He was picked up and carried into the tent and a physician was summoned. It was found that he had sustained no serious injuries, the shock and minor bruises having resulted. He will be able to resume his part in the death-defying act later in the week and in the meantime his place will be taken by a younger brother.

This is the third accident the young automobilist has suffered. The mechanicians are attempting to discover whether the apparatus failed and caused the accident or whether Gregg moved his body too much while on the air turn, causing the machine to turn turtle.

WIFE WITHDRAWS SUIT; HUSBAND FILES ANOTHER

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15.—Learning this morning that his wife, Jane Chandler, had caused her action for divorce to be dismissed by Judge Van Nestland, William Peyton Day, a civil engineer, filed a suit on his own account, charging his beautiful bride with desertion. Days were doled a decree six months ago by the court on the ground that the charges preferred by both were too frivolous to demand serious attention. At that time Day in a cross complaint accused his wife of receiving letters from Sid Barr, clerk in the Palace hotel, and of having flirted at Monte Rio on the Russian river. Judge Van Nestland thought that the couple could easily make up their minds to go back to Los Angeles and on her counsel requesting the dismissal of the action Day decided to get a divorce on his own account.

The Hopeless Situation in Mexico.

American refugees from Mexico say the Mexicans complain of the "interference" of President Wilson. President Wilson has not interfered. In a friendly spirit he has suggested to the factions a method of composing their differences and restoring peace and a stable government, at the same time disavowing any intention to interfere in the affairs of Mexico or of showing any partiality for either side in the present contention.

When the complaints of the Mexican leaders are examined in detail it is seen that the United States is blamed for not interfering in one behalf or the other. Huerta says he could readily put down the insurrection if the United States would formally recognize him as the legitimate president of Mexico. The insurrecto leaders say they would have no difficulty in overthrowing Huerta if the United States would recognize them as belligerents. Because the United States maintains a strict neutrality, favoring neither side, both sides hold this government responsible for their internecine troubles. Non-interference is their real grievance.

Apparently the only thing to do is to let the factions wear themselves out and totally exhaust the country. Revolution has become largely an excuse for brigandage. Not only is the warfare predatory and intermittent, but it is maintained on one side at least by men who acknowledge no authority but their own will and who hold their bands together by giving them license to plunder the country and rob the inhabitants owning property or engaged in business. Zapata calls himself president of Morelos, although no such office is known to the constitution of Mexico. He has no organized government, no legislative body recognizing his authority, no judicial system, and recognizes no law but his own will. He is making common cause with Carranza, as he did with Madero against Diaz and with Reyes against Madero, but he acknowledges the authority of Carranza no more than he did that of Madero. He is simply a robber chief.

A hopeless air is given to the situation by the supineness of the property-owning, educated class of Mexicans. The country is distracted, wasted and torn by contending bands of ragamuffin plunderers. It is a war of vagrants. The people who have everything to lose are lying still—when they are allowed to—letting themselves be ruled and robbed by whatever band comes along. The bands are made up of illiterate peons mostly of Indian blood. The chiefs are of a higher order of intelligence who are using ignorant tools to achieve fortune and place by wrecking responsible government and destroying their country. If the people who have something at stake would turn out and fight order would be restored, but the present condition will persist as long as they are content to be the bone over which mangy curs fight and snarl.

Yet the very class that suffers most from this wretched predatory warfare swell out their chests and talk magniloquently about fighting to the death to protect their country from invasion in case the United States should intervene. They vie with each other in boasting of their devotion to a native land they will not defend from domestic rapine and of rights which they surrender freely to squalid mestizos and mongrel criminals and hoboes. Naturally the country is a prey to robbers. Naturally the government has fallen into chaos. Where educated cowards leave ignorant laborers of a conquered race to decide their fate, peace and orderly government are impossible.

Irish Nationality Not a Celtic Sentiment.

A recent study of Irish history from a nationalist standpoint proves, or attempts to prove, that the origin of the troubles in Ireland was not racial, but the overthrow of the ancient tribal system of land tenure. Formerly the tribes owned the land in common, the authority being vested in chiefs selected by popular choice. By force and intermarriage Anglo-Norman chiefs became heads of the Irish tribes, and the lands were disposed of as fiefs of the English crown. Thus the Irish chiefs became hereditary landlords, the people being dispossessed of all rights of ownership.

Secondly, the writer declares that the Irish are a composite people far from homogeneous, and are less Celtic than the Scottish Highlanders, the Cornish and the Welsh. At an early date the native Irish were driven out of the English Pale, or exterminated, and for centuries the process of planting English colonies in various parts of the island went on. There were infusions of Danish and Norwegian blood as the result of numerous invasions. Ulster Province was largely peopled with settlers from the Lowlands of Scotland, more Saxon than Celt, and Derry was colonized by a London chartered company.

Many of the English colonists became more Irish than the Irish themselves, and the religious revolution precipitated by Henry VIII drew a line of demarcation which had no racial basis. The English church became identified with the persecutions of the crown and the Catholic church with resistance to oppression and the sentiment of nationality. That line, to a modified extent, exists today.

Cromwell and William of Orange still further identified religion and politics and widened a cleavage, which was not racial but national and religious. Ever since a battle has been waged over fundamental political rights and religion. The combination is due in the first place to the identification of foreign rule, land spoliation, alien landlordism and confiscatory taxation with the Protestant religion, and in the second, to the identification of resistance to tyranny, insular patriotism, civil rights and religious liberty with the Roman church.

It was not a racial division, so much as it was a division which naturally threw the mass of the inhabitants of Ireland into the ranks of those opposed to giving up under compulsion their language, their institutions, their religious convictions and love of their native land. They would not become Protestants because they would not forswear loyalty to their country. They clung to the Catholic church because it was the only organization that represented the spirit of resistance to wrongs, alien rule and popular rights.

This work plausibly explains many of the contradictions of Irish politics, and what are termed the contradictions of Irish character. It illuminates present day conditions.

On what was going on three and four centuries ago. The founders and James I planted the thorns that are rankling in Irish today, only, if the writer be correct, the Irish are no more Celtic than the English. They are Irish for another reason than their Celtic blood—in other words, they are Irish for the same reason that Americans are Americans no matter whence their ancestors came.

The State Fair Revived.

The State Fair which has just opened at Sacramento promises to be one of the most successful in the history of the State. The display of agricultural wealth and resources eclipses anything of the kind exhibited in the past.

One of the most hopeful features of the State Fair as at present conducted is the lively and intelligent interest taken in it, and the character of the attendance. People now visit the fair to see the products of soil, mine and loom, neat stock and milch kine, not to watch horse races and gamble. Exhibitors are not disgusted because the crowds flock to the race track to bet money on horse races. The town is no longer overrun with tinhorn gamblers, race track touts and scarlet women.

In former times it was contended that gambling and horse racing on a betting basis were indispensable to the success of the State Fair. As a matter of fact, those vicious excrescences came very near killing the fair, which degenerated into a racing meet and a gambling carnival.

Since gambling has been banished and racing been restored to its legitimate function of testing the speed and bottom of blooded horses, public interest in the fair has revived. Producers are eager to make displays and a different class of attendance has appeared.

The change is a welcome one for the whole State. It should be still more welcome to the people of Sacramento. By getting rid of the gamblers and touts and the betting races, they have brought back the fair and with it a class of visitors whose presence is worth something. Thrift and decency alike have made a gain.

The taxpayers are not affected by the decision of the Supreme Court ordering the Supervisors to levy the tax for the maintenance of the schools in Oakland and Berkeley. The only question involved was whether the County Supervisors or the municipal councils should levy the tax. The people are willing to pay the tax and do not care a hoot who levies it. However, it is well that the Supreme Court has at last been called on to decide a chronic dispute. The annual wrangle over the school tax had become tiresome since it was no more than a squabble to evade responsibility. As the responsibility has been finally fixed by the court of last resort, there can be no further dispute. In issuing the writ of mandate directing the Supervisors to levy the tax, the court did not give the grounds for its decision, but obviously the ruling was based upon the fact that the public school system was created by constitutional enactment, and therefore the tax for its maintenance must be levied by a State authority. Municipal bodies are not invested with State authority, nor are the schools municipal utilities.

Financial distress in Germany is on the increase. That is the real reason why the German government has decided that it will not be represented at the Panama-Pacific Exposition. The Kaiser's government is hard up and money is so tight in the Fatherland that many of the manufacturers cannot screw up their courage to spend money for exhibition purposes when they can hardly keep their heads above water.

THINGS ABOUT WOMEN

Smart women in Paris are said to be trying the new principle of taking up shoemaking as a hobby. This is reverting to a London craze of over a century ago. On May 4, 1808, Mrs. Chas. Calvert noted in her diary: "I begin a new science today—shoemaking. It is all the fashion. I had a master with me for about two hours and I think I shall be able to make very nice shoes." In the same month Lady Sarah Spencer wrote to her brother: "I am today in a state of great vanity. I have, to my eternal glory be it spoken, made a pair of shoes. There is for you! So if all other trades fail I shall certainly establish myself cross-legged at the corner of an alley and earn a livelihood in the midst of leather, awls and hammers. In the evening Harriet and I divide our time between music and shoemaking, which is now the favorite mode of the family."

Many changes, largely effected by himself, in his Balkan kingdom since he arrived there in 1888 after an adventurous journey in disguise from Germany. Notable among them are the changes in his capital and in his own palace. When he made his triumphal entry as the count-ty's new prince the carriage reached a house before which a guard of honor was stationed. "What house is that?" he asked. "That is the palace," replied General Golecki. The prince, thinking he had misunderstood him, said: "Where is the palace?" And the general was so embarrassed that he could only point silently to the one-story building. The principal feature of the view from the windows on one side was a gypsy encampment, with swine wallowing in the main road before the palace!

During his student days at the lycee of Barle-Duc, M. Poincare, president of France, helped to compose a universal language. His collaborators were his brother Lucien and another school fellow, Pol Brouchet. The work was apportioned between the three, the future president being responsible for the substantive, his brother for the adverbs and other parts of speech. The precocious philologists managed to persuade a local printer to publish the "Lexicore" lexicon, which resulted from their labors. The edition was limited and the copy preserved by the president in his library is the only one which has survived.

PUMPING WITH SUN'S RAYS

A message from Cairo states that the "sun-power" pumping plant, invented by Frank Suuman, which was recently installed in Egypt, has just been inspected by Field Marshal Viscount Kitchener, who was much interested in the plant. This invention has been applied to pumping operations, and is capable of pumping 5000 gallons of water per minute to a height of 33 feet.

The principle of this, the latest system of power production, is simple, the heat of the sun being used to raise steam in a specially constructed "boiler," which steam drives a low-pressure engine. There is a series of generators, each consisting of a flat sheet-iron box three feet square, with plates only one-eighth inch apart, and covered by two sheets of glass an inch apart.

The boxes are massed together over a space of 500 square feet and have a heat-collecting area of about 10,200 square feet. This area is made up of 25 rows of boxes each row containing 22 single units. Each box, which is painted with a dull-black composition that does not reflect more than 6 per cent of the sun's rays, rests upon a layer of non-conducting material. The resulting insulation is so good that, if desired, a temperature of over 400 degrees Fahrenheit can be obtained in the boxes.

The boxes are placed on tripods and can be set at angles to suit the sun, whilst mirrors are used to direct additional sunlight on to the "boilers." On one side of each box is a pipe, through which water can be admitted, and on the other side is a pipe for taking away the steam generated. The steam pipes from the various boxes are connected together so that they discharge into a large pipe eight inches in diameter, which conveys the steam to the engine. The latter is a low-pressure machine, designed specially to reduce heat losses to a minimum. It is provided with a tubular surface type condenser, which type is essential as or distilled water can be used practically in the generators.

SOME INTERESTING PEOPLE

Francois Perillat, the latest chevalier of the French Legion of Honor, published his first volume in 1839, when he was 17 and his latest in 1912. This makes a record, and to parallel it there appears to be only two other instances of a centenarian writer, and neither of these could show a literary life extending over eighty-two years. Michel Chevreul, who died in 1889 at the age of 100, issued his earliest publication at the age of 37 and his latest, sixty years afterward. Miss Caroline White, whose death occurred last September in her 101st year, came nearer than this to the record of M. Perillat. She began writing for the monthly magazines when she was 22 and continued her literary labors until within a few months of her death.

It was not without just cause that Mr. Gladstone's name was given to the handy "Gladstone bag." The grand old man was master of every detail of the art of packing. At a country house they were discussing at breakfast the right way to pack a sponge bag when the sponge had been used and was consequently waterlogged. Mr. Gladstone, who apparently had been wholly absorbed in his morning's correspondence, suddenly closed the discussion by informing the party that they were all wrong. "The only proper method," said he, "is to wrap it in your bath towel and stamp upon it. Then put it in your sponge bag. You will find it perfectly dry."

Father Ohrwalder, who for eight years was a prisoner among the African desperadoes and escaped, has filed an O. J. man. His career is one of the romances of the Sudan. Born at Lana, near Meran, in the Tyrol, in 1855, he went to Cairo in 1879, after being trained as a missionary. In the following year he was captured by the Mahdists in the Dar Nuba. He made many vain attempts before he escaped.

OUT OF THE PAST

From all the years that's passed and gone,
An' left me sort of tradin' on,
As the sayin' is, occasional Familiar things come back to me—
A voice a face a smile a tear—
Or somethin' else I can't describe That fairly mellow me until
My feelin's somehow seem to stir.
Then letten myself an' have to laff
As Memory contrives to wa.
Some sayin's o'k of pa's an' ma's—
Especially that one of ma's—
"Don't track up the floor!"

Her kitchen floor! Why law-did-law,
'Twas the cleanest spot you ever saw!
So hullisome an' white an' sweet,
An' never meant for youngin's feet
Returned from trompin' through the woods,
Or cat-tail swamps an' neighborhoods.
No wonder that the hired hand
An' bareleg younguns used to stand
Outside the door and wait about
For her to pass the plackin' out
Instead of lovin' walkin' in
To do a honest woman's agin'—
Don't track up the floor!"

An' so I ketch myself an' haff
To hold my selfin' sides an' laff
An' laff an' laff till after while
I find that I can only smile
Through misty eyes an' wellin' tears
A-lookin' backwards through the years—
An' think of mother's takin' on—
An' dream of her an' days that's gone,
An' how, when earth's woes an' storms
Are done she'll fold me in her arms
An' greet me on that Blessed Day—
An' like as not she'll up an' say—
"Don't track up the floor!"

Wash and scrub and clean the easy way, with Fels-Naptha Soap.

No woman wants to look old and ugly. You don't have to. Hard work is what puts tired lines in your face, bends your back and spoils your figure. If you could find a way to ease up you'd be glad, wouldn't you? There is a way; a cool-water, no-hard-rubbing way; it's a good way, and it's cheap. It's the Fels-Naptha way, and it's very simple.

All you need to do is to buy a cake of Fels-Naptha Soap. Your cure begins right away, if you follow directions.

BOARD INVESTIGATES COLLISION AT VALLEJO

NAPA, Sept. 15.—Investigation of General Manager J. H. Hornung of the San Francisco-Napa Electric railway, and of Engineers H. J. Bernier and W. G. Gray, representing the State Railroad Commission, into the collision of two trains which resulted in seven persons being injured, proceeded yesterday with a brief session. Bert Patten, conductor on the southbound car, which figured in the wreck, testified that his car was not going over eight miles an hour when it struck from Georgia street on to the track.

Patten, as well as Conductor William Howe and Motorman William Juarez of the car which left Vallejo at 9:02 for Napa, being the last one before the collision, are still on duty.

Manager Hornung said yesterday that he has ordered lock switches installed in the Napa and Vallejo railway yards, and the railroad commission engineers will undoubtedly insist on these. Whether Conductor Howe left the switch which caused the collision open or an outside man or child turned the switch maliciously has not been determined. Howe and his motorman insist that they left it closed as it should have been.

Lupus Worst Form of Skin Diseases

Here is a Home Treatment that Overcomes even Worst Cases.

Lupus or any other Skin Disease will go Skulking Away if you use S. S. S.

A tiny pimple spreads to the side of the face and often covers the cheeks and bridge of the nose. It is very destructive to the tissues of the skin. No external treatments will overcome it, as the cause of lupus is from impurities in the blood supply. The only known method of cure is to get the blood supply under the control of S. S. S., the famous blood specific. Its action is once upon the network of small blood vessels and glands in the skin.

Not one drop of minerals or drugs is used in its preparation. Ask for S. S. S. and insist upon having it. For illustrated book on skin diseases write The Swift Specific Co., 133 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga. Do not allow some reckless clerk to larrup the atmosphere in eloquence over something "just as good" as S. S. S. Beware of all substitutes.

RICHMOND FACTORY GETS BIG CHURCH CONTRACT

RICHMOND, Sept. 15.—Richmond factories are now competing with the whole outside world and are landing some good contracts from the outside. A local plant is kept busy most of the time on structural iron for big bridges all over the west, and now the local furniture factory has been awarded a big contract for 1000 cathedral chairs for Grace cathedral, in San Francisco. The plant is now busy turning out the chairs, which are to be a part of the big edifice for worship. The chairs are being manufactured from Mendocino oak, and are a very handsome product. In bidding for this work the local factory was in competition with the large furniture factories of the east, but it turned out in Richmond made from the famous California eucalyptus wood.

RICHMOND WILL DEMAND 10-CENT OAKLAND FARE

RICHMOND, Sept. 15.—A movement is on foot here to make application to the state railroad commission to compel the street railroad company to reduce the fare from Richmond to Oakland from 15 cents now charged to 10 cents. The leaders of the movement to bring the matter before the state commission maintain that to charge three fares between this city and Oakland is exorbitant. It is pointed out that one can ride from the county line south for many miles for a cent, but two fares, 10 cents, is charged for a large class of young people who have been under instruction for the past week by Rev. Father Porta.

RICHMOND NOTES

E. E. O'Brien, manager for the baseball team of the Santa Fe employees, has issued a challenge to the Calumet team of Winhaven to play a series of three games and hang up a purse on the side to be taken by the winners. The Winhaven team is going to be just like finding money in the road.

Happy over their success in the Native Sons card contest at Oakland last week, the band of Richmond Parlor is now considering entering the Portland festival contest.

Right Rev. Bishop Hanna of San Francisco will visit both the San Pablo and Pinole Catholic churches next Sunday to administer the sacrament of Holy Communion to a large class of young people who have been under instruction for the past week by Rev. Father Porta.

One of the most attractive events of the season is the annual bazaar of the home of Mrs. Homer E. Watt for tomorrow evening, when the Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian Church will be host at a lawn party to augment the funds being raised to erect a new church building for that denomination.

Members of General Stoenberg Camp, Spanish War Veterans, and of Mary's Legion, assembled yesterday and proceeded in a body to the cemetery, where a grave marker was placed over John McEale, former police officer and member of the camp.

The Globe Airship Company, which located here some months ago, has taken a long term lease from Herbert F. Brown of a block of land lying near the pier at the foot of the city and steel factory, and announces its intention of starting work at once on the construction of a large dirigible balloon, similar to those successfully operated in France and Germany, and to be 30 feet in length and 16 feet in diameter.

Monsieur Ribieri, one of the most prominent divines in the state, arrived at San Pablo yesterday and inaugurated a week's mission in the Portuguese language. Rev. Father Porto, pastor of the church, expects large attendance at the services all week.

An interesting event among the young people of the Wesley Methodist Church is announced for Wednesday evening, when the young men of the Baraca class will have the launching of the ship and the Philanthia class as guests at a banquet.

City Attorney D. J. Han received notice this morning that the Union Trust Company of New York, bond-holders for the San Francisco city bonds, have filed answer to the complaint of the city in the condemnation suit brought for the tunnel and highway right-of-way over the railroad property. It is thought the case will now soon be disposed of.

Mrs. Louise Luster of this city has asked the local police to find her young son, Dennis, who she reports missing from his home here since August. She thinks he ran away with a wild west show that held forth here some weeks ago.

TO HOLD ANOTHER SCHOOL ELECTION

Richmond to Vote on $150,000 Bond Issue to Build New Schools.

RICHMOND, Sept. 15.—The board of trustees of the Richmond school district is working on the details of plans for the calling of a second election for the purpose of submitting to the voters of the city plans for bonds for the erection of new school sites in various sections of the city where school facilities are now most needed.

As soon as the details as to cost of the various sites and buildings to be submitted to the voters for their approval are completed a call for the second bond election will be issued by the board. This action will not be taken until the regular meeting of the board next month. Each proposition for school extension will be submitted to the voters at the time the bond election, and it is for this reason that the school board is taking a preliminary vote before calling the election. It desires to have every detail of the proposed bond issue arranged in the most complete manner before putting the matter up to the people again, as the last effort along these lines was lost because the voters did not thoroughly understand the proposition.

Each proposition is to be submitted separately this time on the ballot. It is figured by the board that $150,000 will be needed for the purchase of the sites, the erection of new school buildings and the enlargement of several other buildings.

TEST LAW SUIT AGAINST PEOPLES WATER COMPANY

RICHMOND, Sept. 15.—A C. Lang, druggist, has instituted a law suit against the Peoples Water company before the state railroad commission to have the corporation show cause why it is charging Richmond water users in excess of what it ought to charge. Lang says the company collects $1.50 for water used at his home whether his meter shows that 300 gallons allowed for that amount are used or not. Lang states that if he uses less than the 300 gallons no reduction is made, but if he uses more than the 300 gallons an extra charge is made, which he considers one-sided and unfair. It is understood that the case is to be a test case and if successful many others will follow. Lang thinks the company should keep individual accounts and average the bills for the year according to the amount of water used, on the basis of 300 gallons for $1.50.

RICHMOND PYTHIANS PLANNING "BIG TIME"

RICHMOND, Sept. 15.—The local lodge of Knights of Pythias is making extensive preparations to greet the Grand Chapter of the local lodge, which is expected to arrive here next Friday evening. The grand officers will discuss the "Beauties of Pythianism," and on the same evening the degree team of Phoenix Lodge No. 4 of San Francisco, will confer the rank of page on a large class of candidates. The past year has been one of the most prosperous since the organization of the local lodge and the members are making big preparations to make this occasion a gala one in Pythian history in Richmond. The occasion will terminate with a fine banquet and the committee in charge will leave nothing undone to make the event a thorough success both from a lodge and social viewpoint. The committee consists of H. T. Davis, T. Bulmer, D. M. Jeanney, Frank Curtis and Frank Palmer.

RECORD YEAR IN GRAPE CRUSHING AT WINERY

RICHMOND, Sept. 15.—The Winhaven plant here is crushing an average of twenty carloads of grapes a day, according to Superintendent Berndt, and this year will be a record-breaker for the big winery. The grape crushing end of the industry is one of the most important features, and this year it will be the largest in volume of grapes crushed in the history of the local plant. As fast as train loads of fruit arrive their precious freight is transferred to the winery, where the grape crushing is now going on continuously. The new concrete warehouse and storage cellar which the company is building, in addition to its other buildings, is nearing completion and will be ready for use in a week or two.

GATES LOCKED; WORKMEN WILL SEEK REOPENING

MARTINEZ, Sept. 15.—The gates are locked on the short road to Avon. Local men who have been employed at the Associated oil works at Avon while retaining their residence in Martinez have driven to and from their work each day have come face to face with the problem of either changing their place of residence or giving up their positions and many have been forced to the latter extremity. Those who have been driving back and forth have been taking the short cut through the Hooper property via the Pacific warehouses turning from the main road and following the Santa Fe at "mosquito bend," but some one in authority has ordered the gates through the Hooper hands locked and travel is therefore stopped.

It is impossible for Martinez workmen to go to Avon via Concord on account of the long trip and it is also impossible for them to walk to and from their work on account of the distance.

Given Gold Badge Kirk Is Honored

WALTER B. KIRK.

As a token of appreciation for his services to the lodge, Walter B. Kirk, a local leader in the Eastern Star, was given a gold badge by the members of San Pablo Lodge No. 42, I. O. O. F., at a recent meeting of the order held here. For the past 25 years he has been a member of the lodge.

For the first time in the history of the Old Fellows, the badge was awarded, and Walter B. Kirk was the first to be honored with the emblem.

The presentation of the gift was followed by a banquet, and the evening was spent by representatives of the Benito, Stockton and Oakland lodges. The grand officers were also present.

AUSTRIANS PLAN BIG EXHIBITION

Manufacturers Favor Fine Display for 1915, is Said.

VIENNA, Sept. 15.—Closer acquaintance with the special facilities in the way of electric power, and the convenience and protection of patients and copyrights which are proposed for the exhibition, not to speak of the possibilities of the extension of trade, appears to have given an impetus to the movement in favor of Austrian participation in the Panama-Pacific exposition.

No reply has yet been made by the Austro-Hungarian government to the invitation of the United States to participate officially, but a considerable section of industrial opinion is in favor of sending exhibits to San Francisco.

Another circumstance which is operating in favor of the participation of Austrian manufacturers, whether the government decides to do so or not, is the advantageous manner in which the proposed new tariff will affect Austrian imports into the United States, and the consequent possibilities which will be afforded to Austrian manufacturers for expanding their trade in North America.

It is calculated that the new tariff will effect a saving in customs dues upon goods imported from Austria-Hungary amounting to $1,500,000 annually.

FOREST FIRES MENACE CANYON IN SOUTH

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 15.—Four hundred men were mustered yesterday to fight the fires which threatened the Tule Canyon forests. Winds today drove the fires due north. This averted any danger to the Arroyo Seco, which is the water supply of Pasadena and vicinity.

The fires started yesterday in Hayes Canyon, during the night the flames nearly skirted Sister Zelle mountain, about twenty miles north of Los Angeles. From there they threatened to proceed northeast into the Tule Canyon. The only settlement endangered was Hooper's ranch, where pleasure campers are located.

The fire fighters were commanded by R. B. Callahan, supervisor of Los Angeles national forest. An alarm was sent early today to Los Angeles. The police here rounded up seventy unemployed men and sent them on motor trucks to join the forest rangers and ranchmen already on the field.

MANY GRIEVE AT DEATH OF "BIG TIM" SULLIVAN

PIONEER COMPANY GETS BAKER LINE

Chalmers Firm Adds Electric to Line; New Models Arrive.

BY EDMUND CRINNION

An announcement of much interest to the devotees of the electric vehicle was given out this morning by the Pioneer Automobile Company to the effect that it had added the Baker Electric to its line and would hereafter represent the Baker as well as the Chalmers line which is so well known on the coast.

According to C. A. Penfield, the Oakland manager, the Pioneer Automobile Company already has the latest models of the Baker car on exhibition and will make a strong bid for the electric vehicle business in this territory. Penfield says: "The first Baker was manufactured fourteen years ago and this car now dominated the progress of the electrical vehicle industry ever since. Our choice of the Baker agency was not a haphazard one."

The Baker car and its accessories are a great number of Baker owners during the past two years, and we believe that the Baker represents the master effort of the world's greatest engineers in every detail of mechanical and electrical designing. The Baker car motor runs on a 24-horsepower electric motor, and its economy in demand upon the batteries, its shaft drive transmits the power with less waste than any other power transmission, and at every point friction has been reduced to a minimum; the chassis offers perfect resiliency and poise, but does away with all jolts and bumps. The Baker car is a masterpiece in establishing the high efficiency of the Baker car as a most important piece of electrical mechanism. The various Baker models, including the roadster, the forward and rear drive coupe, and forward and rear drive sedan, are truly magnificent in their appointments, and the Baker car is a masterpiece in establishing the high efficiency of the Baker car as a most important piece of electrical mechanism.

BABY IS BITTEN BY DOG WHILE IN FIT

VALLEJO, Sept. 13.—While playing with a pet puppy owned by Mrs. W. G. Green, the little three-year-old son of City Superintendent of Schools G. V. Whaley was bitten in the cheek, the animal, which was then in the first stages of a fit, just leaving the imprint of his teeth in the little one's flesh. A few minutes later the animal expired and its brains were sent to the University of California for analysis to determine if there are any possibility of its having been inflicted with rabies. This action is being taken merely as a precautionary measure as the animal displayed none of the symptoms of the disease prior to its death. The baby was given medical attention immediately after the incident and appears none the worse for its unpleasant adventure.

This is to certify that Dr. T. Foo Yuen cured me and made a new man of me. I was told that this doctor was very good, and as I was all in and could get no help from the American doctors, I decided to call on him.
He diagnosed my case perfectly. I knew he understood the human system or he could not describe my feelings as he did.
I took his medicine, and was wonderfully improved. I took his medicine, and he made me a new man of me. I feel very satisfied to him and give him a testimonial to anyone who wishes to write to me for information they would like, or if I can be of any service to them.

Constitutionalists Are Expected
by U. S. to Protect

Women and Children Hamper Progress of Party.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 15.—Five Americans, two men and three women were beaten last night by a mob of twenty Mexicans in Toluca. The Americans were returning home from a dance, where one of them had had an argument with a Mexican woman. Harry Bittell and Guy Long were clubbed unconscious. They were accompanied by Mrs. Ethel Dorsey, Miss Bessie Wohlgenuth and Mrs. Long, who suffered minor injuries.

AMERICANS IN DANGER.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—One hundred American refugees on the Mexican desert between Torreon and Saltillo, harassed by bandit bands, according to unconfirmed reports, were not mentioned in the early official dispatches today in the State Department had no other information of them.

Officials of the consular service pointed out that the Americans passed through the desert on September 1. That town is in the hands of the constitutional troops, having been taken last May. An American consular agent recently took twelve days with a fast automobile to make the run between Torreon and Saltillo. The fugitives, hampered by women and children and more primitive means of transportation, are expected, of course, to take much longer.

Territory through which the Americans are traveling is controlled by the constitutionalists and the agents have been given to understand that the United States looks to them for protection of the fugitives.

ACQUITTED OF MURDER.
EL PASO, Texas, Sept. 15.—T. F. Johan and Tom Helfrin, of the customs and immigration service were acquitted today in the district court of the charge of having murdered Captain F. Alvarez, of the Juarez garrison, on September 6.

Johan testified that the Mexican crossed the international bridge, firing at the two officers and that they killed him in self defense. Judge Jackson then instructed the jury to bring in a verdict of not guilty.

LED BY DEPUTY CONSUL.
MEXICO CITY, Sept. 15.—The fugitive Americans are being led by Deputy Consul General J. C. de la Cruz, a man of interest, who went to Torreon to notify American residents there of President Wilson's warning. They left Torreon September 1st, traveling by the most available conveyances across the plains in the direction of Saltillo, there having been no railroad communication for many weeks. They were passed on the way by J. R. Everett of Palestine, Tex., near Parais, about half-way to Saltillo, or approximately eighty miles from Torreon. Everett reached Saltillo September 1st and reported that the caravan was making slow headway owing to the bad roads and poor equipment.

LEAVES CABINET.
MEXICO CITY, Sept. 15.—Dr. Aureliano Urrutia, Mexican minister of the interior, has left the cabinet. His resignation was accepted at midnight by Provisional President Huerta.

Dr. Urrutia is under charges preferred by Senator Manuel Calero, former Mexican ambassador at Washington, for arresting him in defiance of his immunity as senator. Senator Urrutia gave as reason for his resignation of the ministry of the interior that the position required qualifications which he did not possess. He is a surgeon and had never before had experience in politics. His anti-foreign sentiments have not been disguised during his term of office, and it is said that the foreign diplomats here were opposed to his retention in the cabinet.

Dr. Urrutia was the author of the so-called Huerta ultimatum to the United States, which was promptly repudiated by Federico Gamboa, the foreign minister.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—Without reference to a committee the Senate unanimously agreed today to the House joint resolution appropriating immediately $100,000 for the relief and transportation of American citizens of Mexico. Senator Bristow of Kansas, however, did not grant his consent to the passage of the resolution until he had criticized the administration's policy.

"I have had letters from several friends in Mexico and talked with others who have left Mexico since the President issued his warning for Americans to get out of Mexico," said Senator Bristow, "and they all say that the warning has been very unfortunate. They tell me that it has made the lot of Americans in Mexico very much harder than it was before."

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—"Big Tim" Sullivan passed through the streets of the East Side for the last time today. His body was taken to Old Cathedral of St. Patrick, a quarter of a mile from the rooms of the Association bearing his name, where it had lain in state since Saturday afternoon. Tens of thousands of men and women from every section of New York had gazed on his features there and a throng such as only the East Side can furnish followed the body today to the Cathedral and to its last resting place in Calvary cemetery. Brooklyn, a delegation of Congressmen, headed by Representative Kinch of New Jersey, led the mourners. Behind this delegation marched the longest funeral train the East Side has ever seen.

ASTRONOMICAL LOVE FEAST OBSERVED

Eclipse of Moon Takes Place in Presence of Host of Lesser Lights.

Saturn, Mars, Venus and New Comet in Star Parts;
Others Shine.

The total eclipse of the moon, the shaggy wolf! Saturn, the fiery Mars, the always brilliant Venus and the new comet were all observed this morning at the Chabot Observatory, while among those present were Sirius, Castor, Pollux, Aldebaran, the Pleiades, Orion and a host of lesser lights, and all behaving perfectly and doing credit to the celestial four hundred.

Saturn, high up in the east, was first observed, to compare the brightness of his six principal satellites during full moonlight, and again after our own moon was merged in the earth's shadow. The sky was clear, and, as most of the city lights were out, including that greatest of abominations, the light on the city hall, the conditions this morning were unusually favorable.

SATURN'S FAVORABLE POSITION.
Saturn was superb. The rings are now, and will be for the next three years, in the most favorable position for good observation.

Mars is not yet in full phase, but was equally well situated. The solar caps are quite conspicuous now, so, also, were what is believed to be his oceans, but nothing was observed that resembled the projects of "Nathaniel's" observations. No doubt, however, the Martian astronomers on the dark limb of Mars were only observing the earth's satellite as she passed into the shadow with as much interest as the astronomers of earth. Venus was, as usual, late in rising, and, as usual, outshone all the rest when she came upon the scene. She is the city night light's only rival.

ECLIPSE ON TIME.
That something serious was the matter with the moon was plainly evident. Several minutes before she plunged into the earth's shadow at the rate of 2000 miles an hour. It was the "penumbral shade" of the poets, but, astronomically, it was the contact with the shadow that was of more interest. This and the total phase came just in time as shown by the celestial time card. The last of the eclipse was lost by the moon passing behind some clouds near the western horizon.

During the time of totality several occultations—the passing over of stars by the moon—were observed. These are the most useful observations that can be made during a lunar eclipse, as they assist astronomers to determine just where the moon is "at" in her complicated orbit.

During the total phase the new comet (comet of 1913), recently discovered by Metcalf, was observed. It was high up in the northeast at 4 o'clock in the morning, but was not visible to the naked eye, though fairly bright to the telescope.

Even as a telescopic object, it is not an overpowering sight, but was one of the most interesting of "those present."

MADE LIFE INTERESTING, SAYS SINGING HUSBAND

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15.—Dr. Robert H. Burr, a local dentist, this morning had transferred from Tuolumne county, the divorce suit he was instituting against his wife Mable, who, he says, made his life exceptionally "interesting" from August 1, 1911, to January 1, 1912. He sets forth that his better half cut him in the back in his dental office, threw glasses at him, hurled the cover of a sugar bowl in his direction at Camp's restaurant, soaked his clothes and shoes in a bath tub so that he could not go out, and made a baseball out of his gold watch.

prophets and sooth-sayers find themselves at a loss today to hazard a guess as to just what is going to happen. The Portland Club, which, a week ago, was the pennant by every student of baseball, cracked suddenly went up against the inconsistent Seals. Big league superior fielding, coupled with an amazing percentage and a sudden epidemic of injuries in the Portland led Del Howard's troupe to take seven out of eight the league leaders. But for an unfortunate error in today's game, the Seals might have made a clean sweep

The Tigers sustained their stretch runners by tramping over the Angels, winning games, and crawling up striking distance of the pennant. The demoralized Oaks at Sacramento, and away with six out of

The run of ill luck last week was enough to Duck pluck out all his one of his star pitchers, had been beaten not twice, and the only man didn't suffer a fate was error, Thursday, en- to win the only game he tie had to play Krauss in the rest of the time, and him again.

out them, 50 per cent of the effective- ness of the team is gone. The other 50 per cent is constituted by the pitching staff, and if that goes to pieces, McCredie's fall will eclipse all other circus acrobatics the league has staged this year.

Meanwhile, the hoo-doo still clings fervently to the unfathomable Oaks. The fans may desert them. Dame Fortune jilt them, rival teams may walk over their loss, their mits and their faces, but the dear, old Jinx stands firmly by them. Helling was spiked in the seventh inning yesterday at Sacramento, Cheek sliding into him, and cutting a gash at the base of the thumb, that necessitated seven stitches. Mitze finished out the game at third for Oakland. Added to this the fact that Lewis spiked Doc Cook later in the game, and that Bill Malarkey is suffering from what looks like an attack of ptomaine poisoning, and there seems to be some slight excuse for believing that Jonah has taken up his abode with the team.

Cook may be out of the game for a few days in which case it will be interesting to see how the managers to patch together an infield. Seitz, Helling and Cook out of business would leave either short or third without a guardian, as Guest could hardly play both.

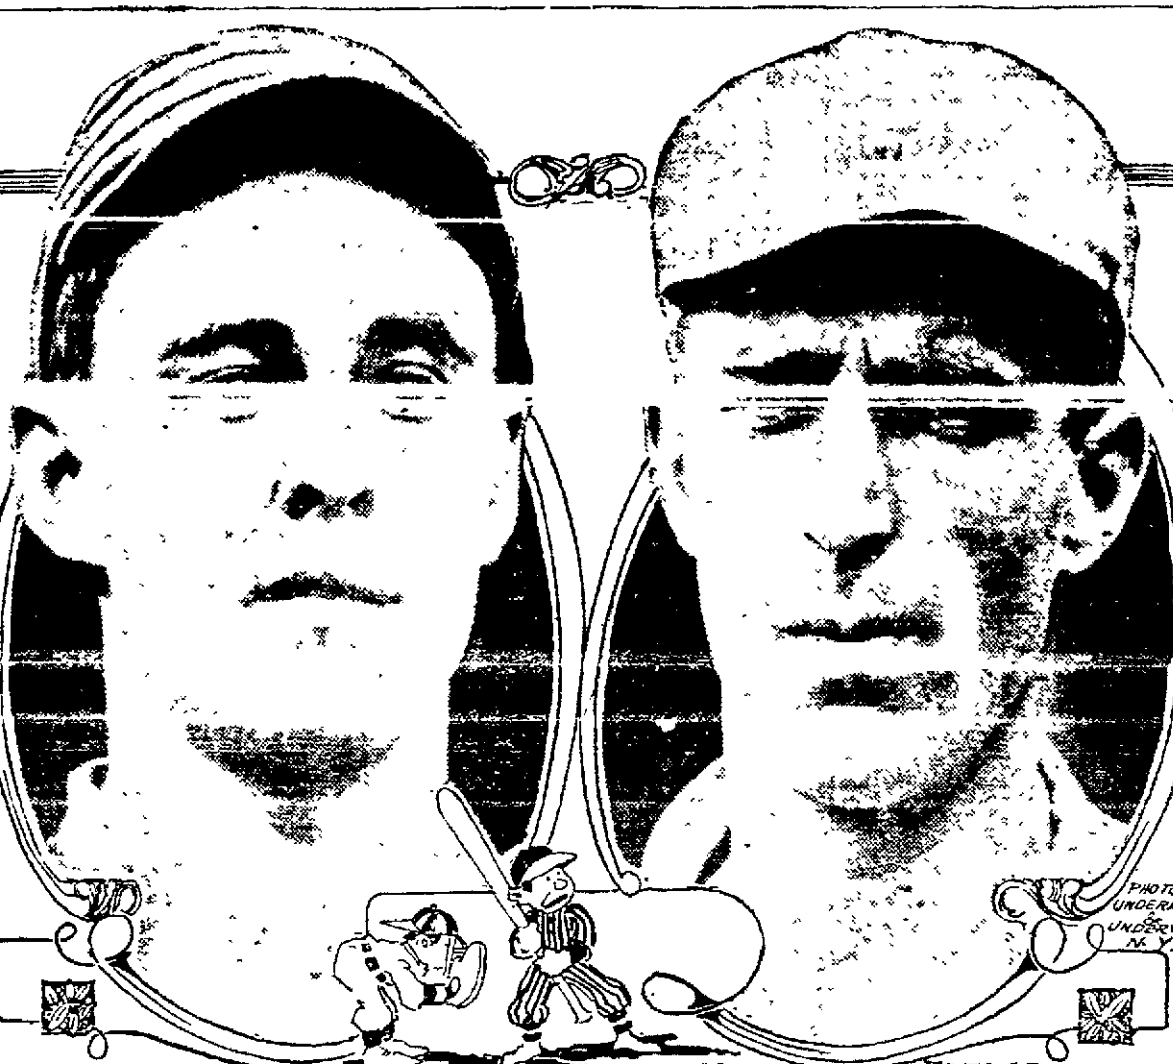

The morning game in Oakland was played in one hour and 12 minutes, the season's record.

The sudden brace taken by the Seals is worth $10,000 in cold cash to owners of the club. Five thousand people saw the afternoon game, and cheered Pete Stanridge as he steered his hit-rides to a 6 to 0 victory. The Seals hit Higginbotham opportunely.

Jimmy Johnston stole his 99th baz yesterday, and arose to declare that he was going to win the pennant. This is quite likely to precipitate grave international complications.

President Baum will go to Portland this week. Incidentally he will be called upon McINNIS. FRED MERKLE.

Fred Merkle (right) of the New York Giants and McInnis (left) of the Philadelphia Athletics, the men who cover the initial sack for their respective teams, are so evenly matched that it is impossible to say which of the two is the better player. A glimpse at the percentage of both players for the season of 1912 will give the fans an idea of the kind of ball these players are capable of playing, and will give an insight of what may be expected of them in the coming World's Championship series.

Merkle	129	1229	73	27	.980
McInnis	153	1533	100	27	.984

In batting, McInnis looks the stronger, having a record of .327 against Merkle's .309.

PELKEY WITHDRAWS CHARGES.

CALGARY, Alta., Sept. 15.—After conferring with Tommy Burns, Arthur Pelkey has handed out a statement withdrawing the charge he made against Burns at Portland and saying that Burns is and ever will be his best friend. Burns, he says, has shown him receipts proving he used him fairly financially. Pelkey asserts he made the Portland statement at the direction of a Portland sporting editor when he was intoxicated.

DRAFTING SEASON OPENS WITH RECORD APPLICATIONS

CINCINNATI, Sept. 5.—Major and minor league magnates and others interested in the drafting of players by major league clubs from minor leagues were present when the National Baseball Commission began its annual meeting here today. The members of the commission are: August Herrmann, chairman, Pres. Thomas L. Linn of the National League and Pres. B. B. Johnson of the American League. When the members of the commission went into session more drafts had been entered than in any year since the national agreement went into effect. It was reported that the commission would discuss a new plan for drafting players which would give the advantage to the second teams in the major leagues to help build up. At present all ball clubs in the two big leagues have an equal advantage. The first division clubs may draft a man from the second division teams and they have an equal chance to draw the players desired. Tonight the directors of the National League will meet to review the protest of the New York club of the National League with regard to the New York-Philadelphia game of August 20 which was forfeited to New York by Empire Brennan and later awarded to the Philadelphia team by President Lynch.

FOLEY WINS COUNTY TENNIS TITLE

Charles Foley captured the title of Alameda county tennis champion yesterday afternoon by defeating Marshall Evans on the courts of the Berkeley Tennis club. After the defeat of Wins Davis and Henry Brock in the early rounds of the tourney Foley was practically in a class by himself. The match went to Foley in three straight sets, 6-1, 6-2, 6-2. The second set was the only one in which there was any contest. Foley took the first three games of the set and then Evans took the following three, making the score 6-4. The match was then a close one until four all was reached, where Evans took Foley's serve and a moment later was leading at 30 love for the set on his own. Foley steamed down, however, and high deep love gave him the game. Two more in a row went to Foley and with them the set, 7 to 5. The early part of the third set was close, but after 2 all had been called, Foley put on an extra notch of speed and ran out the set, 6 to 2.

LOCAL CYCLISTS ARE TROPHY WINNERS

The Hoffman-Prior combination for the Olympic race from Paris and Jersey at the New Centuries at the Golden Gate park stadium yesterday. The contest was a close one and a large crowd turned out to watch the riders in the long and severe grind. It was nip-and-tuck throughout, with the Oaklanders winning, with a sensational sprint at the finish.

Big League Leaders Retain Lead

The Philadelphia Athletics and the New York Giants are holding tightly to their lead in the two big leagues and there does not seem a chance for them to be headed. The Giants were shut out yesterday, while the Phillies crawled up a game, but there remains only three weeks, and the Giants hold a seven game lead, so that there seems little chance for an upset. The Cleveland club in the American League lost whatever chance they had when they were drubbed unmercifully by the Washingtonians.

INDIANAPOLIS WINS FEDERAL PENNANT

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 15.—The Federal League, said to be the first independent baseball organization to complete its full schedule, closed its first season yesterday with the Indianapolis club far in the lead for the pennant. The club owners will meet in Indianapolis September 21, officially to award the pennant and elect officers for next year. It is reported a new president will be named to succeed John T. Powers of Chicago, the organizer of the league, who some time ago was given an extended leave of absence. The question of making the league an eight-club circuit also probably will be decided.

GEORGE SMITH AGAIN LEADS GOLFERS

DEL MONTE, Sept. 15.—George Smith leads the professionals who are competing in the Del Monte. He took the open contest yesterday with a score of 144. This is the eighth time he has won the championship. John Black, brother of Bob Black of Calumet, was tied for second place with Hutton Martin of Los Angeles, score 150. George Martin of Long Beach and Jim Smith of Santa Cruz tied for a fourth place at 152.

WELTERWEIGHTS ARE OUT FOR MATCH

CHICAGO, Ills., Sept. 15.—"Wild Cat" Ferns of Kansas City, and Billy Walters, a former sailor, were matched today to box ten rounds in Kenosha, Wis., on September 26. The winner, it is announced, will meet Mike Gibbons of St. Paul in a contest two weeks hence, which, the promoters say, will be for the welterweight championship. The weight will be 145 pounds at 3 o'clock.

LOGAN FOLLOWERS READY TO PLACE SACK ON FAVORITE

Middleweights Who Meet Wednesday Night Have Started the Betting Tribe.

By THE TIMEKEEPER.
TICKETS for the Berg-Logan scrap were morning and the ready demand for the pastboards indicates a big attendance at the West Oakland Club Wednesday when the two crack middleweights clamber through the ropes. The battle is the talk of the Rialto and few of the boys are ready to pick the probable winner. It looks like the most even affair arranged by a local club in many a month, and there promises to be plenty of action at even money. The San Francisco sports promise to bring over a big sack which they will unload on Logan, but the Oakland delegation will string with Berg to a man.

None of the local fans have lost a bet on Berg yet and he has engaged in fifteen battles in this city and San Francisco. The very worst that his backers ever got was a draw, and these draw decisions were a rank injustice to the blonde scrappier. The only reason why Ott shared the honors of a draw instead of getting the decision on several occasions was because he had inclined to loaf on the ropes after having been out lead. The old stalling habit has been tucked away in the discard, there to remain for all time, and any time Berg starts now the crowd will be sure to get ahead with full steam on. He made a promise to Bob Shand when the latter assured the management of him and he has lived up to his word. He has two starts under Shand's management.

Fully 100 fans visited the Oakland Athletic club yesterday and gave Berg the best over. They were sure that he was ready for the going and in the six rounds he boxed with Jimmy Fitten and Tom Nicola he displayed all the old time vim. Berg intends making a hurricane start and setting a pace that is calculated to disconcert the Logan party. Logan expects to win on his hitting ability, but in his last start with Berg, he was boxed by the blonde for four rounds. Frank did not give any evidence of possessing a dangerous punch. He may be able to hit, but it would seem from past performances that he does not connect solidly unless a colored scrapper is on the receiving end.

Mauree Flynn, the clever Chicago bantamweight, will meet a tough lad in Owen Hookey at the six round special event. Hookey is the pride of Maryland and has defeated all comers with the exception of Eddie Miller, with whom he "loved" a start. Hookey has been showing great improvement and is expected to prove a sensation in these parts. George Emile and Willie Robinson will also try to get around any four round boys put in the gloves on the fans can sit back in their seats prepared to witness a real fight.

The good four-round preliminaries round out one of the best looking cards the West Oakland club has offered all the fans in a year.

Al McWhister has informed Jimmy Roman, that if his brother's damaged leg is in good condition, and if the Frank Logan match turns out satisfactory, his brother Bob will attempt to meet the winner before the Wheelmen's club next week.

Joe Azevedo is making hay while the sun shines. He is parading in at a handsome horse across the bay and will leave for Los Angeles at the end of the week.

Uncle Tom McCarey of Los Angeles wires that he hasn't got a good match now. Frank Azevedo will land some-thing, his brother Bob will attempt to meet the winner before the Wheelmen's club next week.

Frank Rome the sensational 125 pound boxer, who has put up some of the most exciting contests ever witnessed on this side of the bay, is ready for action again and issues a challenge to Hookey, Salvatore, Attaji, Expedito, etc.

STUDOR TARGET KING AT SHELLMOUND

August Studor was the star at the Shellmound targets yesterday, when he captured the first prize in the San Francisco Schuetzen Verein's annual company shoot. No re-entries were allowed the three best shots yesterday. Studor rolled up the big score of 72, which was six points better than the second man's total.

THREE GAMES A WEEK IN OAKLAND, 1914 PROGRAM

League May Become Eight-Club Affair if Salt Lake's Application is Accepted.

BY BILLY FITZ.
Simultaneously with the news that Salt Lake City has decided to apply for a franchise in the Pacific Coast League this winter, comes the report agreed to give Oakland three games a week next year. There is probably no connection between the two items of news, for the improved schedule for Oakland was decided upon over a month ago, while the Salt Lake matter just came to light today. Still, if Salt Lake and some other club are accepted in the Coast League fold, and the organization becomes an eight-club affair, the new schedule will be a simpler matter to arrange.

While no Coast League director will permit himself to be quoted upon the subject, it may be stated that a tentative agreement has been made, whereby games will be played in Oakland on Tuesday, Wednesday and Sunday mornings, the series opening across the bay on Thursday afternoon, instead of Tuesday.

Such an arrangement does not include similar changes with regard to Venice. Ben H. Hite, president of the Salt Lake baseball club of the Union Association announced last night that his club would make application for entrance into the Pacific Coast League. President Hite said that he would present facts to the directors of the Pacific Coast League to justify their taking Salt Lake into their league. The season which closed yesterday with the Salt Lake team second in the race has been the most successful baseball season ever had in Salt Lake.

Included in the ranks were a score of amateurs who will match their game against the professionals in the hope of finishing in the "plate" if not in the "money."

SUSPECT WOMAN OF BEING PLAUSIBLE IMPOSTER

Secures Money by Working On Sympathies of San Leandro Residents.

Alleges Husband Is Sick and Needs Medical Attention.

SAN LEANDRO, Sept. 15.—A plausible woman, who has worked on the sympathies of several society women of San Leandro, from whom she secured sums of money to pay for medical attention for her sick husband, is suspected of being an impostor, and Mrs. Fred Stencel is believed to be the woman.

A bit of detective work by Mrs. Stencel, Mrs. Robert Farrelly and others resulted in their suspicions being aroused, and a trap was finally laid for the woman, when a party of her helpers offered to take her to her home and see the sick man. Their assistance was promptly declined.

The woman gave the names of Mrs. Barry, stating to Mrs. Robert Farrelly of Broadmoor that she lived on Stanley road, and to Mrs. Henry Stencel that she had a house in Oakland. The persistence of the strange woman in her attempts to get money brought her seven times in the same day to Mrs. Farrelly's house.

The alleged impostor told a sad story to Mrs. Farrelly of a sick husband, and of the distress at home through poverty. Mrs. Farrelly was shown half a dozen shawls, the value of which, she judged, would be about a dollar, but for which the woman asked $10. To get rid of the woman, Mrs. Farrelly handed her $10. About a week later the woman called again, and demanded $20, saying that she was in great need of money. On this occasion the stranger was so persistent that Mrs. Farrelly was again obliged to part with $20. Another week passed and the stranger put in an appearance for the third time, calling seven times at Mrs. Farrelly's, but was refused a hearing. After spending several hours in a vain attempt to reach Mrs. Farrelly, the woman transferred her attentions to the home of Mrs. Henry Stencel, a well known society woman.

CUTS DOWN DEMAND.

A repetition of her story of woe was followed in this case by a request for $30. Mrs. Stencel refused, whereupon the stranger cut down her demand to $10, and finally accepted $10. She gave her name to Mrs. Henry Stencel as Mrs. Barry, and said she lived on Stanley road, San Leandro, although she told Mrs. Farrelly she resided down in Oakland.

The same afternoon the woman called on Mrs. Fred Stencel, in-law of Mrs. Henry Stencel, and her husband's sister, and gained her $250. Nor was this the end of the mysterious "Mrs. Barry." Five days later she rang up another resident, wanting to know who Mrs. Fred Stencel was. By this time the women who had been visited by the stranger, put two and two together, and "Mrs. Barry" was asked for the number of her house, as her helpers intended to pay a personal call and see what could be done for the sick husband. "Oh, not at all," said Mrs. Barry, with an over-anxious consideration for her unbidden guests, which the women thought rather suspicious. "Let me do all the calling."

It is evident that the stranger knows she has become the object of distrust, and for several days has ceased her visits. Mrs. Fred Stencel says she will have the woman arrested should she come around again, and those who handed over money are agreed that "Mrs. Barry" is none other than an impostor.

SAN LEANDRO, Sept. 15.—The First Hebrew Congregation of San Leandro will conduct its annual celebration of Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, October 2 and 3. The ceremony is impressive and is invariably attended by a full gathering of

Among those who are making arrangements for the celebration are Joseph Herscher, president of the congregation, and S. Abrams of Hayward, vice-president, and much of the success of the ceremony depends on their efforts.

An augmented choir, consisting of Miss Lena Abrams, Miss Fanny Abrams, Mrs. S. Jacobs, Miss Fanny Felscher, Mr. E. Herscher and Miss E. Herscher, organized, will render the traditional songs of the Hebrews.

With Leo Rabinowitz, who will conduct the services, Leopold Oppenheimer, a prominent attorney of San Francisco, will be one of the lecturers.

No charge is made for seats at the First Hebrew Church.

MAY INVITE BIG CLUB CONVENTION

Hill and Valley Club to Consider Making "Bid" for Gathering.

HAYWARD, Sept. 15.—The Hill and Valley Club is holding an important meeting this afternoon to decide whether the club will invite the Alameda district convention of the California Federation of Women's Clubs to meet in Hayward next February. The convention has an attendance of 200 delegates, and the majority of the members of the Hill and Valley Club, it is understood, favor the invitation. Such a large gathering of delegates to this important organization will mean much for Hayward. Should the convention sit in session here, the work of arranging and entertaining will fall largely on the members of the Hill and Valley Club.

Mrs. Berry of San Francisco addressed the Hill and Valley Club this afternoon on "Art and What to Look For in a Picture."

FREE DELIVERY FOR HAYWARD

Boundaries for District Are Fixed; Two Carriers at the Start.

HAYWARD, Sept. 15.—The boundaries for the postoffice district in Hayward during the past week gives promise that the time is now ripe for the introduction of free delivery. The introduction of the postoffice department has fixed the boundaries for the free delivery of mail, and it is probable that the system will come into operation as soon as the names of the carriers and the houses and business premises are numbered. Two carriers will be employed at the beginning. Residents on the Meek orchard tract are looking forward to securing rural delivery. A postoffice official inspected that district last week with a view to including it in the rural delivery.

HAYWARD, Sept. 15.—Orphan children throughout the county will benefit through the garden fete held in All Saints' church rectory garden Saturday. A large gathering of local society people attended the function and enjoyed the many attractions. The women in charge of the affair are to be congratulated on the success attending their efforts.

"I am the mother of eighteen children and have the praise of doing more work than any young woman in my town," writes Mrs. C. J. Martin, Boone Hill, Va. "I suffered for five years with stomach trouble and could not eat as much as a biscuit without suffering. I have taken three bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets and am now a well woman and weigh 168 pounds. I can eat anything I want to eat and as much as I want and feel better than I have at any time in ten years."

It will probably have duty in San Francisco bay. The boat is of wood construction and steam driven.

TRANSPORT MEETS TERRIFIC CYCLONE

"Logan" Battles With High Seas for Eight Hours; Voyage Fatality.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15.—Victor of a terrific battle with a cyclonic storm, during which the vessel was badly battered, the United States Army transport Logan, Captain C. F. Williams, master, pulled into the transport docks at Fort Mason yesterday morning with almost a capacity passenger list.

One fatality marked the voyage of the big white transport. On August 25, eight days after the Logan left Manila, Captain George H. Pierce, who for the last year has been master of the transport Dix, passing away on the Logan. His body was brought in yesterday and his widow was one of the first at the docks on her sad errand.

Passengers on the troopship give great credit to the skill of the crew in which they handled the big craft during the cyclone.

WIRELESS MADE USELESS

The ship was wallowing in the rough of the sea and the waves were breaking far above her decks. The wind was blowing with hurricane force and there were terrific rain squalls. The mizzen truck, that supports the aft end of the aerials for the wireless equipment, was snapped off near its base and all the equipment wires were torn from their sockets, putting the system of communication entirely out of business.

Such tremendous volumes of water were sweeping over the decks of the vessel that a couple of huge ventilators were lifted from their sockets, thrown against the railings of the sides and carried into the sea. The covers of the lifeboats were ripped from their lashings and in many cases the lifeboats were badly damaged. The wind stripped awnings from their stanchions and tore them into ribbons. The cabin along the starboard side were deluged with water, and even escaped those of the ship's officers on the topmost deck. Passengers who up to that time had remained in their cabins on the starboard side were driven into the open.

The seas even swept over the bridge of the Logan and officers of the ship were rushed to their posts of duty.

SHOOT WIFE AND KILLS SELF; CRAZED BY DRINK

SAN DIEGO, Sept. 15.—Bitterly reproaching his wife for alleged misconduct, John Harrington fired four shots into her body yesterday, causing wounds that are expected to prove fatal. The woman staggered from the building, a small grocery on Mission Valley road, and fell to the ground. Persons passing went to her assistance and, as they did so, a fifth shot was heard. Entering the house, they found Harrington dead. He had sent a bullet through his head. Mrs. Thelma Harrington, the wounded wife, before lapsing into unconsciousness, said:

"Send the children to my sister, Mrs. Lester Trim, Bradford, Me." The children to whom Mrs. Harrington referred are her two sons, aged 7 and 5 years. They were witnesses of the tragedy. Harrington was crazed with drink when he did the shooting.

SCOTCHMAN REFUSES TO PAY ON SUNDAY

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—"My mother taught me never to trade on the Lord's day," said Angus K. Christopherson of Dunfermline, Scotland, when customs officials who boarded the Anchor line steamship Cameronia from Glasgow yesterday, asked him to pay $2.53 duty on a strip of woollen cloth.

"I cannot do it. I will not pay out money on the Sabbath. I would rather lose the good wool than enter into financial transactions on this blessed day."

"It's only duty we ask. It's right for you to pay," said the officer.

"No," said Angus. "I'll abide by my mother's teachings. I'll return tomorrow with the silver. There is no luck in Sunday bargain."
